Attendance
Matters:
Mr. Martel

Attendance

- Attendance counts! Be here ALL DAY....EVERYDAY
- If you are running late and arrive within 20 minutes of class starting, go directly to your class and they will count you tardy.
- If you are more than 20 minutes late you will need to receive a pass from the attendance office

- After your 5th absence, you will receive a notification of absence in the mail
- If absences continue you will be placed on a 45-day plan
- If there is still no improvement in attendance, an intervention involving you and your parents will be implemented
- Final consequence will be court

Attendance

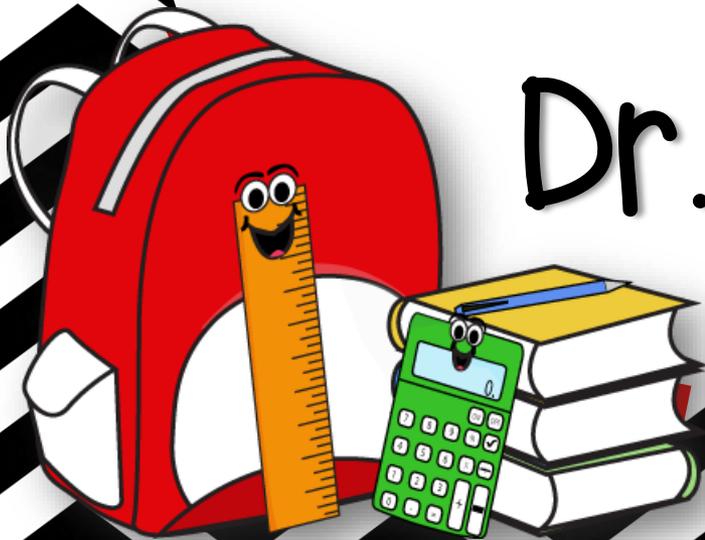

Attendance Committee

- Will review and monitor attendance
- Will decide what interventions will be implemented
- Will create incentives and reward students for outstanding attendance

Guidance &
Instruction:

Ms. Ramirez

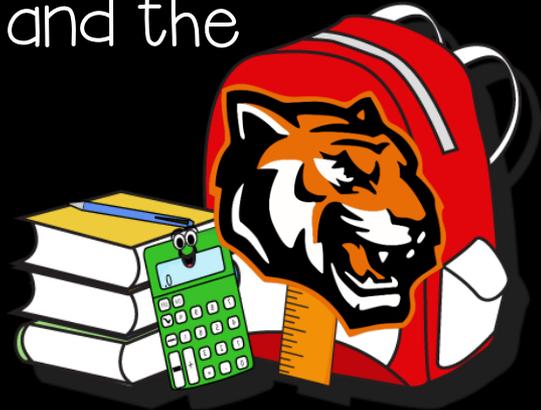

Reaching your goals starts with a plan

- The courses you select drive your current and future success.
- It is important to talk to your parents about what next year will look like academically for you.
- The schedule is built based on course requests.
 - Selecting classes drives the campus schedule
 - We try to accommodate each request

Pre-Registration for 2023

- Pre-registration will begin in October
- Keep your end goal in mind when selecting classes
- Talk to your peers about their classes
- Meet with teachers and ask about other classes they teach
- Talk to your counselor about your goal and the classes that can help you reach it
- Attend campus course nights in the Fall

Meet our Counseling
Team

Counselors: what we do...

We are here to facilitate your personal and academic journey at El Paso High School.

We want every one of you to leave our campus with the skills and abilities to become successful members of society in a multi-cultural world. Our focus expands beyond just academic growth, as we are here to help you express, cope, and persevere day in and day out.

Know Where You Are.

Grade levels are not determined by how many years you have attended high school. Your grade level is based on how many credits you have earned.

9th Grade: 0 – 6 credits

10th Grade: 6.5 - 12 credits

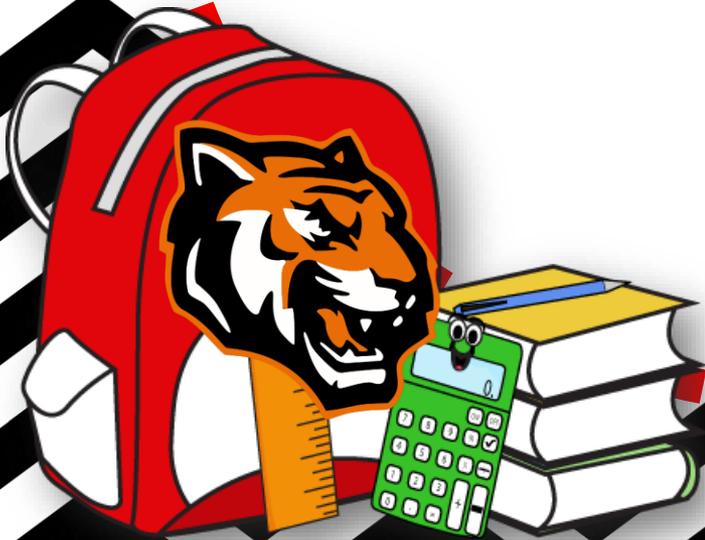

11th Grade: 12.5 - 18 credits

12th Grade: 18.5 credits and beyond
