Announcements for the week of 1/8/2020 – 12/10/2020

GOOD MORNING FRANKLIN! HERE ARE TODAY'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

Join us in a competition against our rival Coronado high school for the Dunk Your Kicks shoe drive. Bring in a gently used pair of sneakers or tennis shoes to East-260 now through the 14th OR bring them to the game that evening. Cheer on your cougar basketball teams on Tuesday, January 14th and dress in Hawaiin gear to say aloha to the T-Brids. One pair is worth 30 mintues of community service & 5 stuco Points.

Seniors, the form that you need to complete with the 3 universities and 3 scholarships you have applied for is now past due. Please come to the go Center to get a copy.

The next general student council meeting will be Wednesday January 15ᵗʰ at lunch or after school. Please plan on attending either meeting, whichever fits your schedule. The meeting is worth 2 points, see you there!

January 14 at 2:30 Oklahoma Panhandle University will be here, get a pass in the go center today!

Seniors the FAFSA deadline is coming up on Jan 15. You must have your application complete and submitted by then. Please come to the GO Center with any questions. You cannot receive any scholarship money from a university without this application.

This is a reminder to all of our staff that we still offer Zumba Tuesdays and Thursdays at 4:30 pm in the Magnet Dance room during the Spring semester. Get healthy this 2020!

Attention students, Homework Haven will open for the spring semester on Monday, January 13. We are open Monday-Thursday, 4:15-6:15 in the library on the main campus. We have tutors in core areas, can facilitate makeup work, and have room for homework and projects to be worked on.

Do you got a talent you would like to show off, can you dance, are you in a band, do you like to preform? Then sign up for our annual talent show, "Cougars Got Talent!". Come by East-260 by January 31ˢᵗ to get your name on the list, there will be prizes given out to 1ˢᵗ, 2ⁿᵈ and 3ʳᵈ place.

THAT'S ALL FOR TODAY!! Remember Cougars ALWAYS Raise the bar, be Respectful & TOGETHER WE CAN!
