Comprehensive Needs Assessment

L1 Whole Child (Culture & Climate)

L1 Whole Child (Culture & Climate) Summary

Charles Middle School is a campus that fosters social and emotional learning and guidance through PBIS and instructional lessons for our enrollment of 389 students. Our 2 counselors work diligently to ensure students receive monthly lessons and presentations around the topics of Mental Health, Child Abuse, Cyber Bullying, Dangers of Drugs and Alcohol, Healthy Friendships, Self-Regulation, David's Law, and Coping Skills. Charles currently offers a total of 39 extracurricular activities to promote continuous academic, behavioral, and physical support.

L1 Whole Child (Culture & Climate) Strengths

Our campus size allows the faculty and staff the opportunity to get to know our students.

Large number of extracurricular activities offered and good participation numbers.

Charger shout-outs (acknowledgement of positive behavior).

Parent participation and support have been increasing. Regular structure for two way communication with stakeholders (Charger chat, etc.)

We are responding to disciplinary issues.

Prioritized Needs Identifying L1 Whole Child (Culture & Climate) Needs

Prioritized Need 1: Increase the implementation of PBIS matrix and PBIS flowchart. Root Cause: Students getting in trouble in class from bad choices.

Prioritized Need 2: Increase positive reinforcement of positive/good behavior at the time of the behavior. Root Cause: Lack of the use of PBIS matrix and PBIS flowchart.

Prioritized Need 3: Increase activities for 6th graders to acknowledge positive behavior and student actions. Root Cause: Lack of encouragement and activities for 6th graders.

Prioritized Need 4: Increase SEL modeling in PLC and include in teacher lesson plans. Root Cause: Lack of SEL implementation within teachers' daily instruction.

L2 Academic Excellence (Curriculum, Instruction, Assessment)

L2 Academic Excellence (Curriculum, Instruction, Assessment) Summary

For the 2023-2024 academic year, Charles Middle School will engage in purposeful and effective coaching practices stemming from weekly walkthroughs and conferences. Administration will meet 5 walkthroughs per week, followed by 1 coaching conference per week. Walkthrough calibration sessions amongst administration will further support teachers with purposeful feedback and coaching opportunities.

L2 Academic Excellence (Curriculum, Instruction, Assessment) Strengths

Structured and well performing PLC's.
Completed walkthroughs were positive, supportive, and helpful.

Prioritized Needs Identifying L2 Academic Excellence (Curriculum, Instruction, Assessment) Needs

- Prioritized Need 1: Campus administration is lacking in their feedback conferences. Root Cause: Administration focused heavily on discipline issues not allowing them the opportunity to attend PLC meetings.
- Prioritized Need 2 (Prioritized): Campus administration needs to provide more feedback on walkthroughs. Root Cause: Administration focused heavily on discipline issues not allowing them the opportunity to attend PLC meetings.
- Prioritized Need 3 (Prioritized): Campus administration is lacking in PLC support. Root Cause: Administration focused heavily on discipline issues not allowing them the opportunity to attend PLC meetings.
